

CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS WORLDWIDE

We are a global family of Chartered Accountancy institutes that uphold the highest technical and ethical standards. Together, we support, develop and promote the role of Chartered Accountants as trusted business leaders, decision-makers and advisers.

Chartered Accountants have been involved with setting global standards and leading development for the accountancy profession since the beginning. Through its member institutes - of which (insert Institute name) is one - Chartered Accountants Worldwide is committed to promoting the expertise and skills of Chartered Accountants and the value they can offer to businesses, organisations, individuals and communities around the world.

Chartered Accountants Worldwide is a global family that brings together the members of leading institutes to create a community of over 1.7 million Chartered Accountants and students in more than 185 countries.

Chartered Accountants Worldwide continues to build Chartered Accountancy's position as the professional designation of choice among business leaders, financial experts and accountancy specialists. Indeed, Chartered Accountants know the foundation stones of prosperity are relevant skills and complete integrity of perspective. The importance of ethics, integrity and trust are the bedrock of what we - as a profession - believe in.

In order to ensure the future of the Chartered Accountancy profession, Chartered Accountants Worldwide strives to attract the brightest and best to the designation. This designation is trusted the world over to create prosperity and make a difference for - and to - individuals, companies, industries, communities, societies and economies across the globe.

Chartered Accountants Worldwide annually sponsors a group of young Chartered Accountants, aged between 18 and 35, from across our member bodies to take part in the youth leadership summit, One Young World.

One Young World gathers together the brightest young leaders from around the world, empowering them to create positive change. As well as representing Chartered Accountants Worldwide and their home institutes, our delegates have the chance to network, debate, make long-lasting connections and discuss innovative solutions for solving some of the world's issues. Our delegates 'fly the flag' for young Chartered Accountants, demonstrating how the analytical and problem solving skills of a Chartered Accountant can contribute to improving the world we live in.

One of the benefits Chartered Accountants Worldwide offers its members is the ability to connect. Together we host events around the globe allowing Chartered Accountants to come together to network and share best practice. In addition, we share top-of-its-class thought leadership from the world's leading institutes via social media channels and through the insights section of the Chartered Accountants Worldwide website.

The pace of change and advancement of technology means that as a profession, we need to embrace change and keep evolving to safeguard the future. Chartered Accountants Worldwide makes it its business to educate its members on topics such as digital disruption, ethics and integrity - thus ensuring everyone is fully equipped to navigate their way through the digital age - adding value to businesses worldwide.

Supporting members' mobility is the reason why Chartered Accountants Worldwide has an International hub on its website. We want to support our members wherever they are working around the world and allow current and future members to see the possibilities that being part of such a trust designation brings.
