

Model questions:

1. "Finding new market spaces where competition is minimum is new strategy where business firms follow". Discuss
2. Businesses are affected due to several parties in the business environment. How a firm can strategically analysis these impacts and chose right tool in managing those parties.
3. Companies carefully plan their product portfolios and periodically monitor each product line performances. This results taking actions against each product portfolios. What are the available strategic tools for this job?
4. Show the suitable structure type for a University.
5. Organizations need to be changed as par with environmental changes, what are the available strategies in introducing change.
6. Discuss Porter's stance in his prominent article "What is strategy"
7. Who are the involved parties in strategy development