

The Sri Lankan Government's much awaited budget for 2014 will come under intense focus this week at the annual budget seminar organized by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Sri Lanka (CA Sri Lanka), with Secretary to the Treasury; Dr. P.B. Jayasundera scheduled to deliver the keynote speech focusing on the government's goals and expectations.

Scheduled to be held on Saturday, November 23rd 2013 at the Grand Ballroom of the Galadari Hotel, the seminar will also feature Commissioner General of the Department of Inland Revenue, Ms. Mallika Samarasekara as a speaker, among an expert team of panelists who will delve in detail on the government's 2014 budget proposals which were presented in parliament on November 21st by President Mahinda Rajapaksa.

During his keynote speech, Dr. Jayasundera is expected to use the CA Sri Lanka seminar as a platform to emphasize on the government's budget strategy for the upcoming year.

The panelists will include Deputy Secretary to the Treasury - Mr. S. R. Attygalle, Senior Tax Advisor of the Department of Fiscal Policy - Ms. Dhammika Gunathilaka, Deputy Commissioner General of the Department of Inland Revenue - Mr. H. B. A. Seneviratne, Chairman of the CA Sri Lanka Faculty of Taxation - Mr. N. R. Gajendran, Member of the CA Sri Lanka Faculty of Taxation - Mr. Duminda Hulangamuwa and Member of the CA Sri Lanka Faculty of Taxation – Ms. Shamila Jayasekara.