its continuing efforts to educate professionals and members of the public on various issues and matters relating to tax. The Chartered Tax Advisor programme is also one such effort which aims to ensure that Sri Lanka possess skilled professionals who specialize in this important area,” he said.

Chairman of the CA Sri Lanka Faculty of Taxation, Mr.Duminda Hulangamuwa noted that CA Sri Lanka has always been in the forefront in offering a multitude of recognized qualifications for the discerning professional, and the Chartered Tax Advisor course was one such important initiative launched in 2012 for the benefit of tax practitioners who aspire to obtain a recognized professional qualification in taxation.

“Tax professionals have an important role to play in the development of any nation, and as Chartered Tax Advisors, you are now equipped with the relevant skills to give leadership to other tax professionals while also sharing your insights on various taxation related matters relevant to the profession as well as the nation,” Mr. Hulangamuwa added.
