

In its continuing efforts to ensure Chartered Accountants complied with the highest standards of professional ethics, the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Sri Lanka (CA Sri Lanka) recently launched the 2014 edition of the Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants publication.

The revised publication was developed considering the relevant developments to ethics practices worldwide and emerging matters specific to Sri Lanka and was drafted with the objective of establishing high-quality ethics standards for professional accountants.

Written by Piyoshila

Monday, 22 December 2014 05:41 - Last Updated Monday, 22 December 2014 05:50

fire the standard particular the standard particular that the standard properties the standard propert

