The 38th National Conference of Chartered Accountants organised by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Sri Lanka (CA Sri Lanka) will see an impressive line up of international and local speakers as well as panelists who will steer the technical sessions during the three day conference from 25th to 27th October 2017 at BMICH, Colombo.

At the conference this year, international award winning educator, CEO, advisor and leadership coach Sudhanshu Palsule

, who is regarded as one of the leading thinkers in the fields of complexity and transformative leadership will steer the first technical session on

Agility - The differentiator

. During his session, Palsule will help the participants understand the 21st century complex systems and frameworks for change and why both innovation and agility must take precedence in driving organisations forward.

The second session titled "Engage, Accelerate, Outshine" will help participants including chartered accountants (CAs) understand why it's important for them to be more agile, adaptable and to continuously acquire new skills to ensure that they remain and succeed as dynamic and agile leaders. The session will also questioning the status quo of chartered accountants and explore the future role of CAs to provoke debate and action to ensure that CAs continue to contribute to the growth of our economy. The session will feature

Tom Hood, Chief Executive Officer of the Business Learning Institute and Maryland Association of CPAs, who was named by Accounting Today as the second most influential leader in the US Accounting Profession in their annual Top 100 list.
