The programme scheduled for 14th to 17th March 2012 aims at grooming high-end corporate executives including business leaders with enhanced and global leadership qualities deemed a necessity in today's ever evolving business context. For more details please call 2352049.

The four-day programme will once again be conducted by renowned Professor of Leadership, Dr. Thomas Mannarelli from the faculty of the INSEAD Business School.

The programme will see a thought provoking outline aimed at enhancing leadership qualities of business leaders covering a wide range of topics including; vision and leadership transition; creative thinking outside the box; influence without authority; leading organization change; leading high performance teams; decision making under uncertainty; negotiation dynamics and influencing for change.

Dr. Mannarelli, who holds a PhD from the Haas School of Business at the University of California, Berkley and a B.S. in Business Administration the Indiana University, is a specialist in issues related to creativity, innovation and leadership in organisations.
