

The Institute of Chartered Accountants of Sri Lanka (CA Sri Lanka) recently signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the Project Management Institute (PMI) Sri Lanka chapter paving the way for CA Sri Lanka to conduct globally renowned project management programmes at its Colombo 7 premises.

In addition to conducting the Project Management Professional (PMP) and Certified Associate in Project Management (CAPM) programmes of PMI, the agreement will also allow both institutes to jointly conduct seminars, CPD courses and common forums for the benefit of accountancy, finance and project management professionals in the country.

The MoU will also allow CA Sri Lanka and PMI Sri Lanka Chapter to share knowledge, provide technical inputs and also increase awareness among CA members on PMI.

CA Sri Lanka President Mr. Sujeewa Rajapakse emphasized that the coming together of two recognized institutes will greatly benefit the professional community in the country.

“CA Sri Lanka continuously endeavors to offer our professionals with the best of qualifications and opportunities right here in Sri Lanka which will help them enjoy greater success in their chosen fields with a diversified knowledge in all areas. Our agreement with PMI Sri Lanka Chapter which is undoubtedly a prestigious institute in the world is one such initiative in this continuing journey to provide our professionals and CA Sri Lanka members marketable and globally recognized qualifications,” Mr. Rajapakse added.

The MoU was signed between CA Sri Lanka President Mr. Sujeewa Rajapakse and PMI Sri Lanka Chapter President and Board Chairman Mr. Aruna Kooragamage, in the presence of CA Sri Lanka Vice President Mr. Arjuna Herath, CA Sri Lanka Chief Executive Officer Mr. Aruna Alwis, CA Sri Lanka IT Faculty Chairman and Council Member Mr. Channa Manoharan, IT Faculty Alternate Chairman Mr. Ashane Jayasekera, PMI Sri Lanka Chapter Executive Vice President/Board Director Mr. Ganesh Wijenayake and PMI Sri Lanka Chapter Vice President Professional Development/Board Director Mr. Shanaka de Silva.

Chief Executive Officer of CA Sri Lanka, Mr. Aruna Alwis noted that the institute has been at the forefront in introducing a wide range of programmes for the benefit of the Sri Lankan corporate society, helping them uplift their professional standards and knowledge as per today's global trends.
